JEZ shares our insight on people, places and things we are buzzing about this month.

—EMILY L. FOLEY

Whether we're looking for lunch or a gift for our favorite foodie, Savor Gourmet is our go-to specialty foods store. Located in the Peachtree Battle Shopping Center, the shop has a European vibe and an impressive selection of hard-to-find gourmet foods, dinnerware and cookbooks. Plus, the extensive sandwich menu and cozy seating make this a must-try for Buckhead lunchers. 2355 Peachtree Road, 404.869.0070, savorgourmet.com.

JEZ loves to jet-set, and we love the unisex bags and wallets from local designer Malcolm Fontier created with the modern-day traveler in mind. Fontier and his wife, Gabrielle Kennedy, designed the line of earth- and animal-friendly pieces to be weather-proof and chic. You can find it at the new Core Store at Ken Barber Clothing. malcolmfontier.com.

All that glitters is definitely gold at Midtown's new Aurum Lounge. Located inside the Metropolis Building, the lounge is dripping in the hue from the seating to the glowing bar. We're also loving that there's no cover charge and the hot spot's no-smoking atmosphere. Open Wednesday through Saturday nights. 108 Eighth St., 404.815.9426, aurumlounge.com.

Ormsby's in West Midtown is a neighborhood tavern with a nostalgic twist. Sure, there are pool tables and dartboards to occupy your time, but it's the bocce court, shuffleboard and backgammon tables that caught our eye. The extensive beer selection (there's 20 on tap!) and creative bar fare are also worth checking out. 1170 Howell Mill Road, 404.968.2033, ormsbysatlanta.com.

Now you can get your balance where you get your java! Danneman's Coffee offers early morning, mid-day and evening Purna Yoga classes taught by Urban Yoga ATL instructors every weekday but Wednesday. Check the Web site for complete class schedules and prices. Repeat after us: 'Ohm.' 466 Edgewood Ave., 404.380.1393, dannemans.com.

Daza Dance Ballroom Academy's weekly Friday Night Dance Parties have got us cuttin' footloose! The free 30-minute dance class followed by a night of dancing, drinks and refreshments is sure to shake some life into your weekend. 8:30 p.m. to midnight. 3005 Old Alabama Road, Suite 4000, 678.910.9693, dazadanceatlanta.com.

JEZ knows eating local is the way to go, but it's not always easy to drive out to the farm to do your shopping. That's why we're thrilled that Whole Foods Market now carries products from Sparkman's Cream Valley in Moultrie. The no-hormone dairy farm has only Jersey cows and produces delicious milk, butter and yogurt. Farm fresh in the city! sparkmanscreamvalley.com.

We've always loved Mama—the Decatur-based bath and body product line that is—and now it has its own retail shop: Mama Bath + Body. Now you can touch and sniff the yummy natural lotions, scrubs and candles before you purchase. An added bonus is watching Emilie Sennebogen hand-create her masterpieces while you shop. 743D E. College Ave., 404.377.7800, loveyourmama.com.

If you've never experienced roller derby, you don't know what you're missing. The Atlanta Roller Girls take the track for their first home game of the season on March 13, and it's a spectacle worth seeing. Totally campy, fiercely competitive and a load of fun, roller derby games take place at the Yaraab Shrine Center in Midtown through September. 400 Ponce de Leon Ave., atlantarollergirls.com.

We love the décor and cuisine at Pacci Ristorante, and now we're excited to try our luck with the new "lunchtime lotto." Each time you dine for lunch, you receive a lotto ticket and the chance to win prizes such as a weekend stay at Hotel Palomar, an iPod, dinner for two or a 50-inch plasma TV. We hope you get a side of luck with your lunch! 866 W. Peachtree St., 678.412.2402, pacciatlanta.com.
